

Up Coming Program On July 6

2009

Written by: Elizabeth A. Mead

At 7:00 p.m. join in the fun on July 6, 2009 at the Gilford Village Bandstand (Meetinghouse in case of rain) where special entertainment will take place.

Arranged through Gilford's Thompson-Ames Historical Society 'Sprightly Steps - New Hampshire's Contra & Square Dancing Traditions' will present Adam Boyce. He is a historian, former elected official, a Yankee humorist, juried artist and a fiddler. He is involved in almost every aspect of fiddle contests and competitions. He also is a traditional dance musician and caller.

Also appearing will be Bob McCarthy. Bob is a dazzling virtuoso and resourceful, innovative stylist on the guitar and mandolin. He performs an electric blend of original and traditional music drawing on many styles. He has performed with many well-known musicians including the Everly Brothers, Neil Young, Dion, Bonnie Raitt and many others.

You can reach us at Thomames@metrocast.net and visit our web site at gilfordhistoricalsociety.org.